FRIENDLY LETTERS

Tolu, Ky., March 31, 1905.
S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Sir:
Enclosed please find check for seven dollars and seventy cents, $7.70 which is amount due for printing. Thinking, perhaps, that you would need all the dollars that are due you, because of your misfortune, I hasten to settle. Accept my sympathy. If this is not correct please notify.

Your true friend,
J. O. BROWN.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 31, 1905.
Mr. S. M. Jenkins, President,
Marion Light & Ice Co.,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:
I regret to note the very disastrous fire which occurred at Marion this week. I do not know if your company was seriously damaged. If you are in need of any quick repairs, or anything which we can supply, we will be glad to have you command our time and service. We are in position to ship you meters, transformers, and other supplies on receipt of your wire.

Yours very truly,
T. J. RYAN

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:
We beg to acknowledge receipt of telegram and contract made by our Mr. Campbell, covering the sale of one of our 4 H. P. Wood Base Gasoline Engines, which has been ordered to go direct to you from Factory with all possible haste. We are enclosing, herewith, copy of contract for your files.

Thanking you for the order and trusting that the engine will be received without undue delay, we are,
Yours truly,

Mr. S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Friend:
I want to express my sympathy and regret to you for the loss you sustained in that awful fire. Not only you, but the people in general have my heart-felt sympathy who lost their property in that fire.

Now I hope that you may have a prosperous future, and may succeed in re-establishing your business.

Wishing you the success you so richly deserve.

I am, your sincere friend,
J. TRACE HARDIN.

Irrington, Ky., April 6, 1905.
S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:
Your card received several days ago. Am sorry for you in your loss by fire. Think you could use another dollar, so will send two instead of one.
Hope you will—know you will—come out of the ashes bright as ever. I am,
Yours truly,
J. L. GANNANE.

Piney, Ky., April 5, 1905.

Armore, T., April 4, 1905.
S. M. Jenkins,
Marion, Ky.

Dear Sir:
Enclosed find $1.00 money order for $1.00 for subscription to the Press. I thought just at this time payment of this kind, although small, would not be amiss. I don't think I ever sorrowed on a count of a fire as I do the one you have just passed through. Not even my own losses in the past. 'Tis awful to think of. The flower of Old Marion laid in ashes. So quickly too, and no power to save. I am truly sorry. I hope though, one of the things will spring up soon, more beautiful and better business houses.

Express my sympathy to all whom you chance to meet that are losers—the whole population has lost as to that, though. You need water works and a fire department. It would pay well, say nothing of the comforts. We got insurance on our house and contents at 80 cents—12 blocks from Main street. The property owners would save enough on insurance to pay a fire and taxes by having such protection.

Well, I enjoy the Press and shall miss it very much until you get started again. Wishing it and yourself much prosperity and that the great trouble which has come upon Marion will work out for good, and its people may grow wiser and better and more prosperous.

With kind regards to all,
Your friend,

P. H. WOODS

Dear Sir and Friend:
I regret more than I can express the disastrous fire that so wrecked your beautiful little city.

Please find enclosed check for $5.00 to pay for five years subscription to the Press in advance.

Dear Sir:
Accept my sympathy in your adversity.

I went several times to the office, but no Press. Could not imagine what was wrong.

Afterwards, I heard of the disastrous fire. Can you reckon how I missed the Good Old Press?

Dear Sir:
Enclosed find $1.50 for which please send me the Press. I want it badly and a long with out it. It is like a long of it from home.

I like to hear of the success of the Kentucky people for I am a Kentucky boy myself.

Sincerely, to the Press and its readers.

W. T. Drury, Former School Superintendent of Webster County, Died at Maltoon.

Mr. William T. Drury, a former teacher and school superintendent of Webster county, died suddenly at his home near Maltoon, Crittenden county, last Monday morning of congestion of the stomach.

Mr. Drury was a graduate of the M. and F. Academy of this city and was well known and liked here. After his school days were over he taught several schools and served one term as county superintendent. He was married to Miss Mary Parker, of Dixon, who lived in Providence in her childhood days, being the daughter of Mr. J. C. Parker deceased, who survives her husband with two children, boys of five and ten years of age.

For some time Mr. Drury was engaged in the grocery business at Dixon, also in the milling business at Blackford. This he had disposed of and was living on a farm near Maltoon when he died.

The deceased was a member of the General Baptist church a good citizen and the news of his death was heard with much regret.

Interment took place Tuesday at the church near his home. Providence Enterprise.

Happily Married.

Mr. Thos. W. Nichols, of Providence, and Miss Jennie Alice Casner, of our Shady Grove, Crittenden county, were united in matrimony, Monday, at the home of the bride's parents, at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The loving couple were united in a beautiful ceremony by Rev. W. H. Brown of this city, being witnessed by a large crowd of friends and relatives, at the home of the bride's parents.

The attendants were Mr. Harry Travis of this place and Miss Mary Casner, a sister of the bride. The wedding was attended by the following from Providence: Tolu, and Arthur Nichols and Miss Bonnie Nichols, brothers and sister of the groom; Herbert Morgan, Harry Travis, and Miss Lottie Barclay, Kattie Dry, Nora Casner, Pearl Higgins and Sarah Higgins.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Casner and is a member of one of the best families in our neighboring county of Crittenden. She is a highly respected Christian young woman and will make an excellent helpmeet for the man of her choice.

The bridegroom is a most worthy and upright young gentleman. He was reared on a farm near Providence, but for some time has been a valued salesman at the store of Thompson, Bros. He commands the respect and confidence of his employers and all who know him and has been kept busy receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends since the wedding.

The happy couple have gone to homekeeping in one of the cottages of W. W. Langley, on North Railroad street.—Enterprise, Providence, Ky.

Promoted.

Mr. L. A. Downs, formerly road master of the Louisville division I. C. R. R. has been appointed road master of the Chicago division. This is the most important division of the entire system and Mr. L. A. Downs' friends will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

FINE SEED CORN AND POTATOES FOR SALE.

I have a few bushels of Learning Improved Early Yellow corn for sale. This is regarded as the best Early Yellow corn in America. It is the largest yielder, the safest cropper, more exempt from rot, and will stand dry weather better than any other corn. Planted as late as July it will mature before frost. It will make more corn on thin land than any other kind. Every farmer should try this corn. Price 50 cents per bushel, or $1.75 per bushel.

Also the great medium early or main crop potato, "Sir Walter Raleigh." It is enormously productive, large, very smooth and fine keeper. The quality is simply superb. It is said to equal the Old Snowflake, the standard of quality. I grew last year on a small plot at the rate of over 400 bushels per acre. Try this grand potato and you will always grow it. Stock limited, order early. Price 50 cents per bushel, $1.75 per bushel. Send postoffice money order, or registered letter. Address A. B. COLEMAN, Princeton, Ky.

By using Weir's Bavarian White Lead the most reliable and therefore the most economical lead or paint made. It has zinc in it. The zinc gives the paint a beautiful gloss and prevents the lead from destroying the linseed oil which is the life of all paint. Pure Lead by itself will eat and destroy the linseed oil, thus causing the paint to become porous or open and dust off. Weir's Bavarian White Lead is better and cheaper than any paint because one-half of every gallon of mixed paint is linseed oil for which you pay $1.50 per gallon and get an old, stale, unsound linseed oil. Buy fresh oil from your dealer's barrel at its true value—4 1/2 gallons of seed oil and 100 pounds of Weir's Lead will make 6 1/2 gallons best paint ready to use, that will cost you more than other standard brands of lead and much less than mixed paint and will last twice as long as other. Write D. T. Weir White Lead Co., St. Louis, Mo., for their booklet "Paint About White Lead." Weir's Bavarian White Lead is for sale by COCHRAN & PICKENS Marion, Ky.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

We are authorized to announce
T. H. COCHRAN
of Marion as a candidate for Representative from the counties of Crittenden and Livingston, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR SHERIFF

We are authorized to announce
Charles O. Pogue, of Princeton, as a candidate for the office of sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

NOTICE

The Democratic Committee of Crittenden county, in session called for March 26, 1906, at 1 o'clock, p. m., at the residence of J. W. Crawford, in Marion, Kentucky, and the following resolutions were adopted:

C. S. NIXON, Secy.
P. S. MAXWELL, Clerk.

OUR NEW QUARTERS

We have opened temporary headquarters in the little office building in front of the old Dr. J. W. Crawford residence where we can make our friends welcome.

We are prepared to do all kinds of job printing on short notice. Everything is new and up-to-date. The latest designs in type faces, new machinery, etc. We can show you the advantage good printing has over the ordinary kind by giving you the best in character, quality and economy.

Remember the "Press" when in need of job work.

At the recent spring elections in the west the Democrats were successful in electing their candidates in a number of the large cities, notably, Chicago and Kansas City, Mo. Also in Colorado a marked Democratic gain was made showing that the honest citizens of the Centennial State are not slow in rebuking the wanton disregard of the rights of the voters, as evidenced by the Legislature of Colorado in stealing the Governorship from Hon. Alva Adams and centering it upon Peabody, whom the voters, at the polls, had condemned and repudiated for his high-handed and unwarranted stand during the trouble in the Cripple Creek district. The spring elections, as a usual thing are more or less influenced by local considerations in the larger cities, and this may have had some influence in the sweeping victory of Judge Dunne in Chicago. But not so in Kansas City and other western towns and cities where the gain in the Democratic vote has been most marked and pronounced, showing that the trend of public sentiment is decidedly against corporate greed and unholty commercial alliances.

About all of our leading business firms have secured other quarters and are now doing business as heretofore. Quite a number of them have secured large tents which causes the town to present very much the appearance of a western mining camp. The Press is glad to see this enterprising spirit exhibited. It shows that our business men have pluck and faith in the future of Marion. Now let all join hands and be satisfied by the results of the election.

There is a general feeling of satisfaction in Marion at the results of the election. The Democrats have secured a majority in the county and the voters have shown their confidence in the party.

From this time forth the water works must be "WATER WORKS". The life of the town depends on it and no consideration of previous department must be permitted to stand in its way. The piles of unsightly debris and the filthy and disgusting conditions of the town must now meet our eyes at every turn. Every one should be

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, D. C., April 12.—The National Association of Manufacturers has today issued a statement in which it declares that it is opposed to the proposed amendment to the tariff which would place the duty on raw cotton at 10 cents per pound. The association claims that this amendment would be a serious injury to the cotton industry.

The "hooker" of anti-slavery sentiment from that rare breed and melodramatic combination, which will hold its congress and enact its presidential election here this month I mean, of course, the Daughters of the American Revolution. They have built an imposing temple here for their orgies.

Three old ladies of government employ conceived the idea of perpetrating themselves, and themselves alone and of forming a tight little aristocracy. The movement has in it no vulgarly utilitarian object, no scientific reason. Its end was and is to identify its personnel as the descendants of those who were engaged in the rebellion against the authority of Great Britain.

So they assemble once a year pique and perque themselves on their dubious ancestry and do an amount of out-awarding and spattering and then lighting that is the delight of newspaper reporters in the dull season.

The President in a way on a long vacation but he has left the ponderous and versatile Taft sitting on the lid and no one who has seen the massive Secretary of War will doubt that he will hold the lid down providing, of course, it does not get too hot. Some wiseacres think Judge Taft has put in training for the highest office and that his present functions are for probation. To be deputed to sit on the lid while he is secretary of war and acting premier during the absence of Secretary Hay is pretty stiff duty even for a man as ambidextrous and as big as Judge Taft. It is believed, however, that something pretty stiff duty even for a man as am- bident is the goal of his ambition. Rather than four years in the White House he would prefer a life term on the supreme bench. Chief Justice Fuller, the smallest man physically that ever sat on the supreme bench, is quite old enough to retire, and should Judge Taft succeed him the gain of the highest court in the world in weight will be immense and can be accurately calculated.

Again all eyes are turned with hope to Panama. The new broom or rather the new brooms have been appointed and now at last it is said the ditch will be dug. Nevertheless there is much disappointment in Washington. Many of the friends of the party are disappointed at the results of the election.

TWO IMPORTANT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTIONS

The forty-first annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association will be held at Somerset June 7, 8 and 9. An exceedingly strong and interesting program is being prepared.

Dr. Charles Roads, of Philadelphia, Rev. E. W. Halpeny, of Indianapolis, and Mr. W. C. Shaffer, of Fairmont, W. Va. are to be our visiting speakers. Each is the general secretary of his State and they will come to us with well-matured plans.

Every school in the State is entitled to representation and a large attendance is expected.

The eleventh International Sunday School Convention meets at Toronto, Canada June 23-27. About seventy-five persons have signified their intention of going. This convention will mark an epoch in the Sunday school history of America.

A Tax on Coffee.

Unless they cut down appropriation bills which they seem utterly powerless to do, they must in some way increase the revenues by somewhere from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 a year. That's clear, no matter how much or how skillfully they try to conceal it.

The Washington Post, a thoroughgoing tariff advocate, seems to think that because the government has large deposits with certain favored national banks there is no deficit. It is not reasonable but rather inclines to that opinion. Usually the Post is well posted, and it appears to have overlooked the fact that these deposits are all accounted for in the treasury statements again. It is not the actual cash on hand that determines whether there is a deficit.

The way to ascertain that is to compare current revenue receipts with current expenditures. That the current revenues are not equal to current expenses is not to be gainsaid.

Admitting a deficit for the sake of argument, the Post suggests three remedies: first, a great reduction of expenditures; second, an increase of internal taxes; third, such revenue taxation as the proposed levy on coffee. The Major Wheeler has had much experience in public affairs. He is said to have been a good soldier. He ranked as an able representative in congress. He has been city attorney and mayor of Kansas City, circuit attorney and United States district attorney. He was once nominee for governor. Consequently he is no tyro. Personally he is an amiable gentleman, and he is an interesting and forcible public speaker. Everybody wishes him well in his new position, the securing of which is the realization of a life dream.

All this does not change the fact that he is the child of luck. He twice represented a Democratic district in congress by reason of a Democratic minority vote. Now he goes up again by reason of another Democrat take

In Hot Water.	1
---------------	---

The other is Governor J. A. T. Hall, who represents the 16th Missouri (D.) district in congress, had a hard time and expressed an idea which I have not explaining by tongue and pen for the time. Coming from a Democrat created no excitement, but when Governor Hall repeated it he stirred up large sized hornets' nest, and he has been explaining ever since. He gave me an interview in which he suggested that if Japan whines Russia is weak the Philippines will soon have war on our hands with the Japanese call the Philippines, a fact which has been as plain to me for some time as a nose on a man's face. The governor also suggested that we would be at a greater disadvantage fighting Japan than the Russians are, another fact which is a pile-stuff. All the flags you are jammed on him because they consider it suspicious of treason or be a necessity for the Republican chairman of the house committee on military affairs to be talking that way. Perhaps it is, but it is hard sense anyway, and I say that interview Governor Hall has probably done more good than by his long service in congress that is, if he has succeeded in waking the people of the United States up to our peril. His alternative proposition is that we must sell the Philippines to Japan or

Political Grand Lesson

Once in Snake county, Mo., there lived a well known Sid Shum. One night in St. Louis he bucked a fine buck till his last cent was gone. In the gray of the morning a friend met Sid and, noting his disheveled appearance and forlorn countenance, said, "Sid, what's the matter?" whereupon Sid replied: "I have been playing the d—d fool and have nothing to show for it!" The same remark is applicable to ex-Governor Peabody. He was fairly and squarely beaten by Governor Adams, but at once began a contest because he knew that there was a Republican majority in the legislature and a Republican supreme court on the bench. Even with these necessities he could not get the office which he coveted. The legislature could not be induced to elect him unless he would agree to resign and let Lieutenant Governor McDonald have the office of governor. And it was so done, to the lasting infamy of all concerned. The chances are that if ex-Senator Walcott had not died in the nick of time this monstrous outrage on the people of Colorado would not have been consummated, for he hated Peabody and all his works. His dying message to his followers in the legislature was to stand firm. It's clear that if Peabody was entitled to serve one day he was equally entitled to serve the whole term, but unless he was declared governor the Republican lieutenant governor could not be made governor. Consequently the Republican majority in the legislature stultified itself and committed political grand larceny by seating Peabody for one day with his resignation already signed, sealed and delivered. They would not accept his promise; they must have it in black and white and in safe hands.

From time to time we have been misled by the flimsy organs with the transparent folds that, while the Filibino was a wicked set of rebels and the Hawaiian an ungrateful gang of scoundrels because the latter howl for and the former fight for local self government, our dutiful subjects in Porto Rico were model apparitions, happy as clams at high tide, gratefully accepting whatever Uncle Sam chooses to bestow. That this is all a fairy tale is demonstrated by the latest news from our West Indian colony to the effect that these model Porto Ricans be clamorous for local self government, all except our satraps and their understrappers.

That illustrious Republican reformer and apostle of sweetness, purity and right is still pressing his candidacy for the United States senate in Delaware. It is understood, Senator Allee, proposes to resign if the legislature will not his patron. Once there was a woman who married a man to get rid of him. Perhaps the Delaware legislature will finally elect Allee for the same reason, but any reason would satisfy Allee. He's not after reasons. What he wants and means to have if money will buy it is a senatorial toga.

Surely then William H. Taft is a better man for the job. Not having enough to do in the war office, he has taken over the duties of secretary of state while Colonel Hay is seeking health in Europe. Why not turn the whole administration over to Mr. Taft and let him run it? If ever there was a lucky man in this whole world, while would he be one of those which other men covet and for which they vainly strive are showered on him without his seeking.

The Washington gossip, is to the effect that when Governor Leslie McLean of Iowa quits the treasury department to nurse his presidential campaign, Hon. George Bruce Cortelyou, secretary of commerce and labor, now postmaster general, will succeed him. Few men have ever held threeargent cabinet offices.

Then I felt sent me all sorts of evil influences, a shooting, but I refused to receive it, and as sure as I'm a free man, I'll be glad to see and spend time with Red Hatter, because that gentleman is very kind and smart, and I enjoy him just that. The next day a man was run over in the railroad, and they wanted me to come to see him. But I was in no hurry, and I wouldn't go, and when I got home I found that some one with a gang of police and carry me out there by force. And I was in a hurry, which brought in a verdict. Then they wanted me to take the case, but I wouldn't join them. I said I wasn't going to give my sanction to the process. But, of course, it was no use. I thought I was giving a free country, but I wasn't. The sheriff gave the money away as a mandamus from the court, and I have not a day while I was at it. When I said I wouldn't take a case, or let me draw a trial and said I wouldn't take these trials I'd blow my brains out. So what was a man to do? I resigned $5,000, but some of those big fellows were spiteful. I was

A Place for Everything.
A visit out at West Philadelphia tells a good story of Hansen, which he did as a treat for many months. He was entertaining a friend from out of town last Christmas, when the conversation turned on waves and their value. The Philadelphia friends took the bait.

"Why, do you know," he said, "father had dressed this morning and turned out in a gas. I found that I had forgotten a handkerchief. I opened the bureau drawer, and there in the corner, as usual, was a pocket the top one, and did not have to look for a mirror. Here is the handkerchief I have not worn since then."

He Lost No More Time. They and looked soulfully into each other's eyes for some time, but somehow didn't seem to come to the point. Then Henry he made a discovery. You have your mother's beautiful eyes, he said.

He felt that the time had come to play trump card. "I have also," she said. A father's lovely check-book? "Stray Walking as an Exercise.

It is pernicious to strain an over loaded stomach, and I would rather go without food than without walk. Obstacles increase the pleasure, vexations cannot dampen the ardor for the luxury I covet most. Rain or shine, in every degree of heat or cold, I go when feasible, several hours a day—twice as long when my spirits are depressed. In warm weather it may increase perspiration, but that is a discomfort which must willingly be borne. If W. Beecher said: "There are many troubles which you cannot cure by the Bible or hymn book, but which you can cure by perspiration and fresh air." External gymnastics are scarce; golf and most other outdoor plays require some exertion of the brain. But when we walk we can give the mind a complete rest, and graduate our effort according to our strength. Let those who are feeble walk at an easy gait half a mile, when their muscles strengthen a mile —and they will soon find the exercise

a pleasure instead of a penance, it will dispel the gloom which they hugged, and their aches will vanish. Air is man's element; he has no more exercise to refrain from walking through it than a fish would have from swimming in water.—Review of Reviews.

THE "PRESS" PHILOSOPHY.

Senator Depew recently gave utterance to this burst of philosophy: "The man who laughs is a doctor without a diploma. His face does more good in a sick room than a bushcrystals. People are always glad to see him. Then hands instinctively go out half way to meet his grasp, when they touch, involuntarily from the sunny touch of the dyspeptic who speaks in the glowing key. He leads you out of your faults while you are dream of being offended with him, and you never knew what a pleasant world you are living in until he pathway.
